Mr. Ford retired that port the day before, with two hundred slavery, and the Democratic members of the Senate and Congress from this State have been as obedient to the lash of the slave driver, as the slaves themselves. It is to remedy the e ev ls, and such as these, that the energies of the Republican party should be directed-to main tain the political and financial honor of our State-to send men to Congress who will stand in its halls, like men, side by side with Wade, Giddings and Campbell, demanding only the right, and never succumbing to the wrong. To accomplish this result is easy. It is only necessary to keep in mind the great questions, loav ing unimportant side issues to take care of themselves, and not be jed from the straight course by the false lights shown on all sides by the Administration party In connection with this subject, we call the attention of our readers to the following extracts from the Ironton (O.) The Mentauk leaves to sanctioned by their most honored statesmen, should thus have ruthlessly been broken and violated, without even the standow of an excuse. They know that the feeling of dissatisfaction and disgust at the fraud, and the stern opposition manifested throughout all the Northern States, to enginether concessions or compromises, are well grounded and just. The unprincipled northern apologists for slavery, a e silent as the grave on this subject, but the more honorable can no onger quietly submit. They chafe under the weight of the shackles. The Cleveland Leader says, even the Albany Argus, the ready and reliable ally of stavery for thirty years, questions the right of Missouri to control an election in Kansas. Its language and tone is quite decided : " Now this is not the kind of popular sovereignty to which Democrats of the North, in standing shoulder to shoulder

Po Attorney General in Virginia, says:

lican papers are suggesting from S. P. Chase for the nex Governor of the Sace. There seems to be a good unaminity of feeling on the subject, among the Reference of the Prinsbargh and Erie Rail formers of all classes. We are confident he will be the successful candidate. He is the great man of the Sace, and more than any other person before the public eye. We have before spoken or Mr. Chase in this connection, and rejoice to see the current so strongly seating and formers and we can be subjected as the clarent so strongly seating and the subject of the man nimite of the interests a state of teeling, if it is not of a healthy state of feeling, if it is not of a healthy state of feeling. If it is governous to see the current so strongly seating and the subject of the first three states and the subject of the man nimite of the interests a state, we want it made. We are willing to think proper but if you was state, we want it made. We are willing to the man as so fraught with local as well as governous transportance of the importance of the importance of the importance of the proper fellow, for his tementry in opposing flesh and hoot to seem and fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of he day, asked what fired at the closing of the day asked what fired at the closing of the day asked what fired at the closing of the day asked what fired at the closing of the day asked what fired at the closing of the
